

Curriculum Vita Summary
January 2008
Margaret E. Molloy

Founder & President, Vista Partners, LLC
Parker & Englewood, CO

EDUCATION:

University of Colorado at Boulder, 1979, B.S.
The Johns Hopkins University, 1987, M.S.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE SUMMARY:

*Vista Partners, LLC, Parker, CO
Founder and President*

Our Mission: To improve health and healthcare through technical innovation in patient assessment, health information management and data analysis.

Provide neuropsychological assessment technology – the Automated Neuropsychological Assessment Metrics (ANAM4) - to public and private sector clients in the U.S. and internationally. For the U.S. Department of Defense, provide technology for pre- and post-deployment neuropsychological assessment of deploying U.S. military; 120,000 baseline assessments in place. ANAM4 is used in more than 100 client locations. ANAM4 is used on the NASA Shuttle, the International Space Station, in clinical medicine and research.

Provide patient encounter / medical records software to public and private clients in emergency management and sports medicine.

Member of technology team in PEPFAR (President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief) Public/Private Partnership; business partner of University of Oklahoma Center for Human Operator Performance; U.S. Army Intellectual Property licensee.

HCIA, Inc., Baltimore, MD (now part of Thompson Healthcare) 1993-2000

Member of strategic leadership team. Key executive in corporate development, public stock offering and sale of company. Managed relationships with company's largest clients. Created "disease management" system for highest-cost medical conditions including behavioral health, diabetes, cardiovascular disease, asthma and back pain. Managed development of company's hospital and physician profiling systems and patient satisfaction systems. Managed product briefings with corporate international units in Western Europe. Built corporate technology and internet strategies.

USF&G Insurance, Baltimore, MD (now part of St. Paul Travelers) 1992-1993

Created/ implemented technical network architecture for large national insurer, rapidly implemented in more than 20 locations over 6 months. Implemented automated data management systems throughout corporation, including legal data management.

Westinghouse Energy and Advanced Technology, Pittsburgh, PA and Baltimore, MD (now part of Northrop Grumman) 1983-1992

Introduced executive information systems. Managed the company's Maryland Data Center supporting Westinghouse defense and electronic divisions. Managed national data center consolidations. Represented corporation in national user groups and industry advisory groups.

TIME, Inc., American Television and Communications, Englewood, CO (now part of Time Warner) 1981-1983

Introduced first computer-based executive information system in U.S. to TIME Inc. Video Group corporate executives across the U.S. The system supported the rapid growth of the company to become the largest cable television provider in the U.S. Represented corporation in national user groups and industry advisory groups. Managed franchise and internal communications.

TRACOM Corp., Denver, CO 1979-1981

Wrote and edited trade publications for financial organizations and associations; wrote books for U.S. Forest Service on environmental impacts of mining; developed products of company's training and development division.

University of Colorado at Boulder, Office of the Chancellor 1978-1979

Appointed by University of Colorado Board of Regents as Student Administrator in the Office of the Chancellor. Student representative on Faculty and Deans' Councils; implemented faculty/course evaluation program; represented University at State Legislative hearings on University finance. Member of University Chancellor search committee.

University of Colorado Student Union, Environment Board Chairperson 1976-1978

Managed professional staff of University Environmental Library, Wilderness Study Program and Recycling Programs. Managed creation of topographic maps used in the U.S. Congress to support the designation of new wilderness areas in Colorado. Worked with University and City of Boulder to realign roads and traffic on campus. Built first campus recycling program in U.S. Represented University at United Nations Conference on Human Settlements in Vancouver, BC.

Volunteer activities include work with local school health programs and support of the Colorado National Guard Family Foundation.