

Shannon Robshaw, MSW is the Executive Director of the Louisiana Health Care Quality Forum, a private non-profit multi-stakeholder organization whose mission is to lead evidence-based collaborative initiatives to improve the health of the citizens of Louisiana. She is responsible all aspects of the organization's daily operations and works with the Board of Directors to plan and implement the Forum's strategic priorities. Ms. Robshaw is a member of the national Quality Alliance Steering Committee (QASC), and serves as co-chair of the QASC National Regional Implementation workgroup. She formerly served as an Executive Management Officer in the Office of the Secretary of the Louisiana Department of Health and Hospitals (DHH), where she led the work with public and private stakeholders to develop the Louisiana Health Care Quality Forum (LHCQF). During her time at DHH, Ms. Robshaw provided staff support to the Louisiana Health Care Redesign Collaborative, and served as lead staff for the Living with Illness and Disability workgroup. She also led other departmental and cross-agency transformation initiatives, such as the development of Louisiana's Plan for Access to Mental Health Care and the Louisiana Integrated Treatment Services infrastructure initiative. Prior to her assignment to the Office of the Secretary, she served as the Director of Strategic Management and Fund Development for DHH's Office of Mental Health. Before joining DHH, Ms Robshaw served for 10 years as the Executive Director of the Mental Health Association in Louisiana, where she established the organization as the prominent leader for mental health issues, building a multi-stakeholder advocacy coalition focused on legislation and policy.
