

BRIEF BIO: Mark practices out of Austin, Texas with the law firm of MuellerHillin and is nationally known for his precedent setting verdicts and settlements in brain injury cases, particularly in the area of birth injury malpractice. Mark graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and the University of Houston Law Center. He is also a graduate and teaching staff member of Gerry Spence's Trial Lawyers College in Dubois, Wyoming. Mark handles a wide variety of brain injury and other serious personal injury cases as well as matters involving fraud, greed, misappropriation of intellectual property and disputes over royalties and other financial interests. In addition to law, he is involved as an advisor to the School of Invention and is the founder of Voodoo Cowboy Entertainment which produces feature films and music related matters.